

MEET THE TEAM

BUSINESS ADVISER TEAM

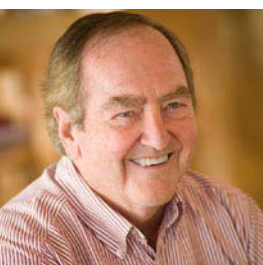

ANTHONY DAVIS

Favourite Achievement: Starting a family at 50 with the woman of my dreams.

Why I enjoy working at BP: The team, the energy they create and seeing the outcomes for clients – all different and yet all the same!

One bit of past history: First 23 years of work in the Clothing Industry. Did everything from cutting and sewing garments to sales and management.

Outside of Brightwater – Personal Interests: Primary Interest is my family. Health and wellbeing and walking Mt Coot-tha 2 to 3 times a week with a great bunch of guys.

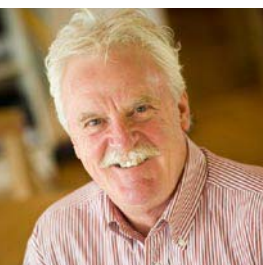

PHIL STONEHAM

Favourite Achievement: Guiding start-up companies to present day major status, and the general management of a number of National Companies.

Why I enjoy working at BP: Advising a diversified range of Businesses, to direct and guide clients through the obstacles between their present status and the successful business they desire.

One bit of past history: Public Accounting, with senior management roles in Private and Public Companies.

Outside of Brightwater – Personal Interests: Playing Golf and watching my favourite Rugby Team.

GEOFF SCOTT

Favourite Achievement: Creating a secession model for my business resulting in resources to develop my assets.

Why I enjoy working at BP: The Clarity and Focus Programs offer realistic platforms for development of ALL business.

One bit of past history: Educated in Perth, graduating as an Accountant and spent time working in Melbourne in the Accounting and Business fields.

Outside of Brightwater – Personal Interests: Family shares in the activities of dining and social entertainment, walking, golf, water sports, motor racing and AFL. Life is always only 'half full'.

IAN DAVIES

Favourite Achievement: The establishment of my own business after 30 years in the corporate sector.

Why I enjoy working at BP: Working with an experienced and talented team, and sharing success with businesses that embrace the Brightwater process.

One bit of past history: I was responsible for moving the Australian Dollar upward ... and the Australian banks asked why? Jumped out of a perfectly good aeroplane to be able to say 'I have done that'!

Outside of Brightwater – Personal Interests: Outrigging, a challenging team sport embracing spiritual traditions and social atmosphere.

DAN BUZER

Favourite Achievement: Building a business to number 1 out of 43 and selling it for a healthy profit within 18 months.

Why I enjoy working at BP: Meeting, learning and helping people with a positive mindset.

One bit of past history: Went to 13 different schools.

Outside of Brightwater – Personal Interests: Beach, skydiving, gym, family, merlot.

MEET THE TEAM

SUPPORT TEAM

ALAN BRIDGE

Favourite Achievement: 17 years in Sales at AM Radio Station with sales greater than market against FM Stations.

Why I enjoy working at BP: The conversations I have with future, current and past clients. There is a great team and we have a lot of fun.

One bit of past history: Working as both actor and film crew on the TV series Riptide. Playing golf against cricket great Brian Lara and taking his money!

Outside of Brightwater – Personal Interests: Travelling with my wife and family. Shiraz, Gym and walking Mt Coot-tha regularly.

MICHELLE HOGG

Favourite Achievement: Passing my gold medal grades in Ballroom Dancing.

Why I enjoy working at BP: We have a fantastic team environment that I get to contribute to on all levels. I also love that we build long term relationships with our clients.

One bit of past history: I used to write poetry.

Outside of Brightwater – Personal Interests: Rock climbing, camping, meditation, personalities.

KATRINA RIMER

Favourite Achievement: My beautiful and slightly crazy family and the decision to move from Sydney to Brisbane.

Why I enjoy working at BP: The professional and friendly team environment. Interesting and satisfying work supporting businesses to make changes to improve.

One bit of past history: Owning 2 cafes for 8 years. The satisfaction of seeing them become “the local” for many happy customers.

Outside of Brightwater – Personal Interests: Food and wine and my collection of recipes, Pilates and regular ‘boot camp’ sessions.

LIANA VANDELEUR

Favourite Achievement: How well my son Benjamin has turned out and running my own bookkeeping business.

Why I enjoy working at BP: Feeling part of the team and the passion everyone shares about “The Brightwater System”.

One bit of past history: Grew up in Bowen in North Queensland. Dad came over from Northern Italy to cut cane, Mum followed 5 years later.

Outside of Brightwater – Personal Interests: Bike riding with a group of girlfriends. Lazy weekends with family and friends over coffee or a good movie.

